RICH'S RITINGS

MARCH 2017

My Granddaughter, Dylan Reese, has her own Bible. She also has a very independent and stubborn streak inherited from her father, mother, and paternal grandmother (yes Debbie)! The other day her mother offered to read Dylan Reese's Bible to her but Dylan informed her that she would read the Bible to her mom. Dylan Reese will be 3 years old at the end of this month and she does not read yet. However, she "read" to her mother that there was "a mommy and daddy, a snake, and wolves in the Bible." But her best translation of her Bible was when she told her mother that "it says that I can have candy every day!" That's Grandpa's girl! I need that translation of the Bible! (I think it is the "Hersey" translation).

On a more serious note, we begin our Lenten journey this month on Ash Wednesday (March 1st). The journey concludes with Holy week and Easter (April 16th). In that journey you should be using your Bible a lot. I invite you to bring them to the Lenten studies, Sunday school classes and worship services. I invite you to read and listen to what your Bible says to you. I am pretty sure your translation will not tell you that you can eat candy every day! But I bet it will tell you how much Jesus loves you. How great His grace is and how awesome His power can be in your life. I bet it will tell you about His sacrifice, suffering and victory. It will also remind you of the promise of the resurrection! Every Sunday we read from the Bible and we end the reading by saying, "This is the word of God, for the people of God." (Thanks be to God) How long has it been since you have really had the Bible as part of your daily life? We always talk about giving something up for Lent.

How about this year we ADD something for Lent..... Add the BIBLE!!!!

It's not just a good book. It's GOD'S book and it has words of life. And who knows, maybe it does talk about candy since Psalm 34:8 says, "TASTE and see that the Lord is good"! Amen & Amen.

Agape,

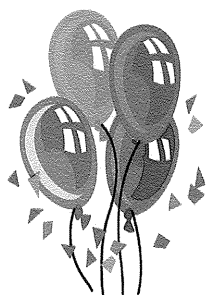

Rev. Rich

MUSIC NOTES FROM WES & BETSY

TIME AND TALENTS! We need YOU to consider joining our Adult Choir at Camp. Several people in the congregation have mentioned to us that we should "tap" certain folks because they have heard their singing out in the congregation. So watch out Camp members, we have our "spies" sitting out in the congregation listening for new talent to add to our choir! So NOW is a great time for YOU to join our Camp Choir. WHAT'S HOLDING YOU BACK? If you need a little push, just call Wes or Betsy, and we will arrange that shove that you need! GIVE AND YOU SHALL RECEIVE!

We want to welcome COLE MEDLIN to our Adult Choir. Cole is a high-school student who sings tenor. What a privilege to have a young man like Cole join our Adult Choir! What an example that COLE sets for all of us. WELCOME, COLE!

MUSIC CONFERENCE

Wes attended a conference sponsored by the Palmetto Bronze Handbell Ensemble of Charleston on February 3rd and 4th. This event is held each year in Charleston with different guest clinicians. KEVIN McCHESNEY was the guest clinician for this year. Kevin graduated with highest honors from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a BM in Composition and Theory. He currently has over 900 titles in print and is one of the very few musicians who makes handbells a full-time vocation. Kevin and his wife, Tracy, live in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Our Bell Choir at Camp has rung several of his pieces in church.

Linger on the hill of Calvary. Rub a finger on the timber and press the nail into your hand. Taste the tinge of cheap wine and feel the scrape of a thorn on your brow.
